Randolph (22) at Morristown (14) - Football

Star-Ledger, October 01, 2011 6:47 p.m.

James Gangemi ran 14 times for 108 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half when Randolph rallied to a 22-14 victory over Morristown yesterday in Morristown.

Morristown built a 14-0 lead at halftime after Daniel Miller scored on a 2-yard run and Zac Carter added a 3-yard TD carry, both in the second quarter.

Randolph closed to 14-8 when Sean Murphy hauled in a 23-yard scoring pass from Dominic Capalbo, followed by a conversion completion from Capalbo to Gangemi with 4:30 remaining in the third quarter.

Randolph gained the lead when Gangemi scored on a 2-yard run and Frank Rago followed with the extra point for a 15-14 score with 9:59 remaining in the final period. Gangemi added a 12-yard TD run with 2:13 to go.

The victory was Randolph's first at Morristown since a 38-14 victory on Nov. 1, 2003, snapping a four-game road losing streak in the series.

Gangemi, a junior who sat out all of last week's loss to Morris Knolls and the second half of a victory at Roxbury two weeks ago because of a back strain, was limited to 39 yard on four carries in the first half.

Carter ended with 166 yards on 22 carries for Morristown. He ran 19 times for 140 yards in the opening half.
